SAW MILLS, GILLINGHAM-STREET, PIMLICO.

TIMBER of any size, PLANKS, DEALS, and BATTENS, &c., sawn on the most approved principle; Boards, &c., prepared, matched, and grooved, by Muir's Patent Machinery. The Mills have all the advantages of navigation and water-carriage, being connected with the Thames by the Grosvenor Canal. Goods fetched from the docks, and carted home free of charge.

Address to HENRY SOUTHAM,
Saw Mills, Gillingham-street, Pimlico.
N.B. Estimates given for Sawing and Planing.

THE GENERAL WOOD-CUTTING COMPANY, TIMBER WHARF, SAWING, PLANING, AND MOULDING MILLS, Belvedere-road, Lambeth, near Waterloo-bridge, are prepared to supply timber and deals, &c., cut and uncut, to any extent, at the current prices of the day. They keep a large stock of WELL-SEASONED FLOORING and MATCH BOARDS, which, being manufactured by themselves, they offer at the lowest remunerating profit. Buyers of timber, &c., from the company will find their extensive saw mills a convenience for the immediate conversion of their purchases to any purpose which may suit them.

The Company beg leave to call the attention of the trade to their NEW MOULDING LIST, the largest ever published, and to state that, in addition to the numerous patterns therein delineated, their machinery enables them to execute every description of mouldings, from drawings, &c., with an accuracy and despatch which must insure satisfaction.

The moulding list, containing nearly 100 diagrams, with prices attached, may be had at the mills, or shall be forwarded on receipt of six postage stamps (the amount of the postage thereon).

N.B.—The Company (without previous preparation) manufactured and delivered to the Great Exhibition fifty statute miles of sash bars within ten days after receiving Messrs. Fox, Henderson, and Co.'s order, which these gentlemen have certified, and that the work was executed to their entire satisfaction.

MACHINE-STRUCK MOULDINGS.— JAMES FRANCE HILL, WOOD MOULDING MANUFACTURER, 120 Wharf, North Wharf-road, Paddington, in soliciting the patronage of BUILDERS and OTHERS, begs respectfully to impress on them, that all Mouldings manufactured at his Establishment are well-seasoned, highly-finished, mitre well, and free from that great amount of waste of which consumers too frequently have to complain. J. F. H. also confidently assures that his prices for Mouldings are regulated on the lowest possible scale, and of a quality not surpassed by any house in the trade, as those parties who favour him with their commands will find. Lists of sections forwarded on application. A large stock constantly kept on hand, and country orders promptly attended to.

MOULDINGS BY MACHINERY.— ARCHBUTT and ATKINSON have just published a new and enlarged list, containing nearly 300 diagrams of Mouldings, with prices attached, lower than any ever yet offered. A copy will be forwarded on receipt of four penny postage stamps.

A. and A. have also on sale

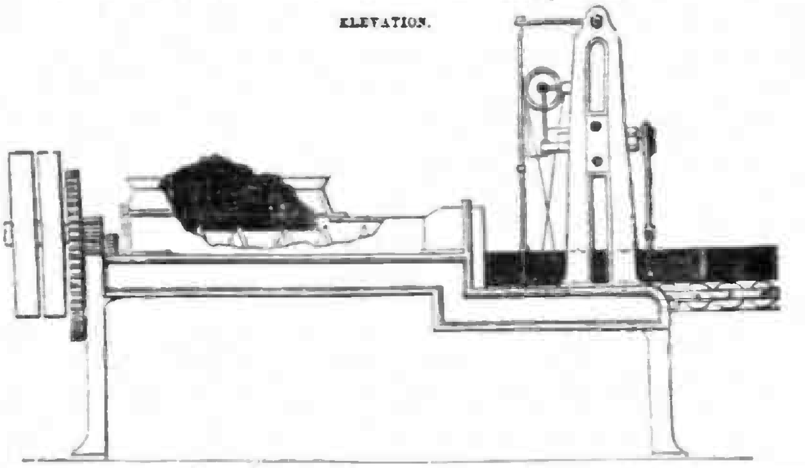
RANDELL AND SAUNDERS'S PATENT MACHINE,

FOR THE

IMPROVED MANUFACTURE OF BRICKS, TILES, & PIPES.

ELEVATION.



In this machine are combined the two objects so long sought in brick machines—a press which forces the clay through a die without cessation so long as the clay is supplied to the machine, and a perpetual self-acting cutter, which severs the clay the required lengths without interfering with its progress.

The clay, in a rough state, is thrown upon the screws by the person employed to fill the machine; the screws, in revolving, thoroughly pug the clay, and also force it forwards into a chamber at the other end of the cylinder in which they revolve; from this chamber the clay is allowed to issue through a die, and it is obvious that the stream of clay must take the form of the opening through which it passes, and this opening can be made of the form required to make bricks, tiles, pipes, and other descriptions of ware.

When it is necessary to give the ends of the bricks a corrugated shape, this can be done by attaching a knife to the cylinder of the cutter; this knife revolves with the cylinder, and is made the shape required for the ends of the bricks, which form it imparts to the bricks in cutting them. This arrangement is adapted for making Messrs. RANDELL and SAUNDERS'S Patent Draining Bricks for sewage purposes, which make a drain of much greater strength than the stoneware or redware pipes, and at far less cost.

The machine is self-acting—the attendants have merely to put in the clay, and remove the bricks, or other ware, which may be produced.

When worked with two-horse power, the machine will produce 1,000 bricks, or 1,000 3-inch pipes per hour; more power can be applied if desirable, and a larger result obtained.

The screws propel the clay without taking air in with it; thus the ware comes out free from the imperfections which are so often seen in the ware produced by piston pressure; and the loss so generally incurred by waste in burning, from the expansion of the air in the ware, is avoided.

The moderate price of this machine, and the simplicity of its construction, place it within the reach of almost every person in the trade, both as to cost and management. It not only lessens the cost of labour required in the process of brick making, but, as the clay can be used in a much drier state than it can be when moulded by the hand, the time occupied in drying is much less; and, when hollow bricks are made, a material saving is effected in the cost of manufacture and burning. In consequence of the great compression given to the clay in its transit, ware of very superior quality is produced.

For price and further particulars apply to RANDELL and SAUNDERS, Bath; or to CHARLES JOHN CARR and COMPANY, Engineers, Belper, Derby.
